1.) Sameness, as distinguished from similitude or diversity.

2.) Two sides of an equation.

27 So I just wonder, today, if we couldn't look in the Bible, and say, "That's me," as we wonder which one is it, which character in the Bible would we look like. And let's just take that for a little text now and stay with it for a while. And as we look into God's Word, let's identify ourselves, for He give others in there for examples of what we are.

Why is this important?

God identified himself

as

Jesus Christ.

The church ages began with Satan trying to hide
the identity of Jesus Christ.

America is struggling with an identity crisis.

The world is struggling with an identity crisis.

Questions about our faith
make us feel attacked.

Why?

Questions challenge us to question who we are.

Changes in life require us to redefine our understanding of who we are.

The world tells you that your identity is:

- Appearance
- Blood Family
- Lineage
- History
- Money
- Work
- Nationality
- Relics
- Number of Friends

If my identity comes from natural things then I can change those things to change my identity.

If you are not defined by natural things

then how are you identified?

31 You see, we, our characters is molded by what's on the inside of us, and our outside only expresses what's on the inside. What we are, how we walk, no matter what we say, our life speaks louder than our words does.

28 Our character molds us to the image of what we are, our character of life that's in us.

53 What is it? It's all God, becoming tangible, and you are a part of God. And Jesus come to redeem those that was put on the Lamb's Book of Life, before the foundation of the world. It was in God's thoughts, and that's what He come to redeem. And them, as soon as It strikes to them, they see It, because the Life is in there.

55 And the whole thing, as Jesus said, “At that day, you’ll know that I’m in the Father, the Father in Me; I in you, and you in Me.” The whole thing is God, becoming material. Like a husband and wife becoming one, together, God and His Church becoming One.

... If it does something different from the Groom, it isn't the Bride.

Because, She is flesh of His flesh, bone of His bone; Life of His Life,
Power of His Power! She is Him!

The question is not “who am I...”

The question is “who is He ...”
