AFFECTION (root = “affect”)

The emotions, feelings and sensations in reaction to something you care about.

64-0619 Perseverant

So, this is a quiet place. And I always was afraid of anything quiet. It sounds dead. So, I'm not much for dead things. So, anything without emotion is dead. ...

64-0619 Perseverant

... The scientific research will prove that: anything without emotion. So if your experience hasn't got a little emotion in it, you better bury it and get something that has got some emotion in it. That's right. It's exactly true.

64-0619 Perseverant

Now, we all are love with Him, I'm sure. But there is a great cooling off amongst the people. The revival is over. The fires is going out. See, it's time for something to happen.

Love is not an emotion.

Love produces emotions.

Love without emotion is dead.

Love is not an emotion.

Love produces emotions.

Love without emotion is dead.

Affections can lie.

ROMANCE

A feeling of excitement and mystery associated with love.

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

5 Love should govern the home. Love is the greatest force that was ever put into the power of man. A home that's not disciplined by love is not much of a home. If the husband and wife doesn't solemnly love each other, they cannot trust each other.

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

That's why I think that instead of resting our faith upon some emotion (which is all right) or some gift (which is all right), like shouting, speaking with tongues, or with other things that we take for—saying that we have the Holy Spirit when we do this...Those things are all right. ...

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

... But if we would come back to the principle, love first, and then those things, I think our church would progress a lot faster, if we would get God first; and God is love.

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

Now, love is in two different words, two different meanings. In the Greek, one of them is called “phileo”; that’s the love that you have for your wife. “Agapao” is the love, Divine love.

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

... Now, the love that you have for your wife, and the love of God is so contrary.

Just listen to this. ...

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

... The love that you have for your wife, if a man would insult her, you would kill him on the spot, with that kind of a love, a phileo love. But with Agapao love, you'd pray for his lost soul. That'd be the difference.

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

There's two different types of love.

And I'm almost sure that many of us has been deceived with having phileo love and thinking it's Agapao love. ...

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

... Phileo love is intellectual;
Agapao love comes from the heart. That's human love, affectionately love, and godly love. ...

57-0806 God Projecting His Love

Godly love doesn't question.

Human love reasons, but godly love doesn't. It's perfect in its trust. It's perfect...It just produces faith

when you really love.
