

A close-up photograph of a baby's feet, with the text "Family by God" and "Daughterhood" overlaid in white. The background is a soft, textured surface, possibly a blanket or rug, with a subtle pattern. The text is centered and has a slight shadow, making it stand out against the background.

Family by God
Daughterhood

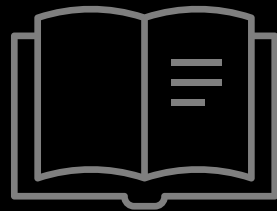

I CORINTHIANS 14 : 34 - 35

... keep silence ...

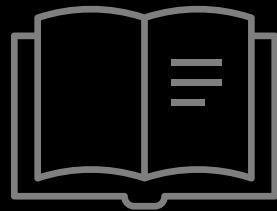

GENESIS 24 : 50

. . . Laban and Bethuel . . .

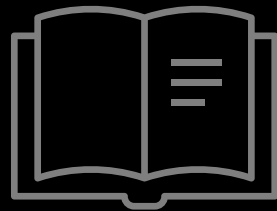

GENESIS 24 : 55 - 60

. . . Rebekah and Eleazer . . .

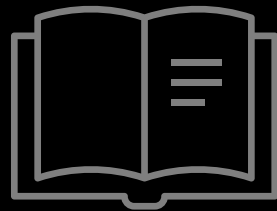

GENESIS 24 : 61 - 67

... Rebekah, woman of integrity ...

EPHESIANS 5 : 32 - 33

... Christ and the Church ...

64-0823M Questions And Answers #1

“Me not say nothing to her?”

127 I said, “I never said that. We’ll quit scolding her, just advise her. She needs a buddy, and you’re the one to be her buddy, you and I. We’re her parents.”

64-0823M Questions And Answers #1

128 These kids today needs a buddy. If they had a mother and father would stay home and take care of them, instead of out here in a barroom running around all night and things like that, wouldn't have a juvenile delinquency. See?

A close-up photograph of a baby's feet, with the text 'Family by God' and 'Daughterhood' overlaid in white. The background is a soft, textured surface, possibly a blanket or rug, with a subtle pattern. The text is centered over the feet.

Family by God
Daughterhood
