

HOSEA 6 : 9 - 10

. . . murder by consent . . .

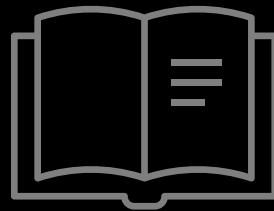

The background of the image consists of several ancient stone tablets, likely from Mesopotamia, featuring cuneiform script. The tablets are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and historical significance. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent white rectangular area in the center of the image.

62-0117 Presuming

Achan, why, he took that little wedge and that Babylonian garment, why, he thought, he presumed it'd never be seen. “Well, what’s that? Just a little old garment. I’ll stick it under here, and probably my family will long enjoy this. ...

62-0117 Presuming

... I got a wedge. If we ever get into a tight place, so I got a wedge of gold. Nobody will see it. Just wrap the thing together and put it under my coat and go on.” He presumed that it was all right, presuming.

62-0117 Presuming

Weakness, Achan said, “It won’t be noticed, it don’t make any difference.” But it did make a difference, that one little wedge upset the whole program of God.

62-0117 Presuming

Achan thought, “This little old wedge, it won’t make any difference.” “The rest of the ladies are cutting their hair. I’ll do the same thing. It won’t make any difference.” But what did it do? It never brought pleasure to his family. It brought death to every one of them.

62-0117 Presuming

And when we compromise on any commandment of God, to please the people, we kill the thing right there.

One little wedge, one Babylonian garment, stopped the marching army. ...

62-0117 Presuming

... Brother, one thing that we permit the church to do, that's wrong, one thing that we won't call out against, and make the people straighten it up, it'll stop the march of the church.

JOSHUA 7 : 14 - 15

. . . what to do . . .

62-0117 Presuming

... But it was cursed! Everything in that fallen place was cursed. And it is today. We don't want no Achans, we don't want no...They never could get going on and win a battle, until that thing was destroyed.

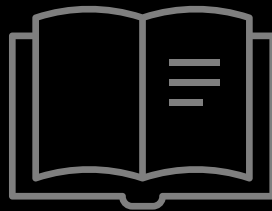

How about us?
