I CHRONICLES 13 : 8 - 14

. . . David and the Ark . . .

53-0614A Earnestly Contending For The Faith That Was Once Delivered To The Saints

Well, you say, “Brother Branham, as long my intentions is good...” No, sir. That won’t do it.

“Well, I joined church with all good intentions.” That still doesn’t do it.

Cain did too.

And now remember, Cain wasn't an infidel. Cain was a believer. This is going to shake the gizzard out of you. I hope it does, some of you fundamentalists, and puts a heart in you (That's right.), a heart of belief.

Fundamentalism

“But I did the right thing.”

Attempting to follow every fact that God presented.

What does it produce?

(Rich young ruler...) He might have intended someday to do it, but as the old Southern saying is, “Hell itself is paved with good intentions.” See, the intentions doesn't do it. Read the prescription on the bottle, but then take the medicine if you want the results.

God is sovereign. And we see here what David done, in the Scripture reading of First Chronicles 13. And he was...His intentions were good. But God does not give us merits on good intentions.

There is only one way to serve God, that's by doing His will at His command.

... And God, being sovereign,
there is no one to tell Him what to do or how to do it. He does it the way, He knows the right way to do it. ...

... And that makes me feel good. And it ought to make all of us feel good, and I'm sure it does. For, one would have It coming this way, and one have It going that way, and one the other way.
